2. Life Saving Recognition Certificate

On Wednesday, April 6, 2005, at 4:10 p.m., a patron, Mrs. Monica McDonald, of the Ontario Motor Vehicle Licence Bureau at 113 Second Street collapsed without warning. The individual suffered sudden cardiac arrest, a condition where the heart abruptly stops beating and breathing ceases. Without hesitating, Mr. Mike Metcalfe, a staff member of the building and Denis Chaisson, a patron at the building, provided cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) in attempts to revive the victim. Paramedics arrived within minutes to the scene and continued resuscitation efforts. Prior to leaving the scene with the victim, a regular heart beat and breathing had resumed. The victim went on to make a full recovery. Without the efforts of Messrs. Metcalfe and Chaisson in those crucial first seconds, the outcome may have been entirely different.
