- 20 - To authorize signing of Grant of Easement to Raisin Region Conservation Authority over Parts 8 & 11 on the Fly Creek Plan of Expropriation

DELEGATIONS

Question Period - Miss Huguette Burroughs, Editor of Le Journal de Cornwall, asked Council to consider the possibility of implementing a fifteen-minutes question period at each of their regular meetings. She advised that the RCSS Board had recently approved such a move which she felt would improve communications between Council and the ratepayers.

Following the presentation by Miss Burroughs, it was moved by Aldermen Samis and Guindon that the press and the public be allotted a 15-minute period to allow questions to the members of Council and that this be initiated on a 3-month trial basis. Defeated

Moved by Aldermen Lebano and LeBlanc that Administration prepare guidelines for a question period for consideration by Council at a future meeting. Carried

Proposed Downtown Hotel - Moved by Aldermen Wise and Leger that Rule 10 be invoked to allow Mr. Rouleau the time necessary to present his brief in opposition to the proposed Ramada Inn Hotel. Carried

Mr. Rouleau thanked Council members for the opportunity to address them. He stated that he represents the Hotel & Motel Association and the Save the Lamoureux Park Committee. He indicated that his clients still insist that it would be wrong to allow a hotel adjacent to the Civic Complex and that Council should not have made that kind of decision without obtaining an impact study. He again presented the arguments that were raised before the OMB at a hearing held in October. Following Mr. Rouleau's presentation, the City Clerk read a memorandum of the oral decision rendered by Mr. Chapman on October 23, 1980 which decision was the OMB decision. After clarifying points raised by members of Council, Mayor Parisien thanked Mr. Rouleau for his presentation.
