INVOCATION

Rev. Bob McDonald, St. Columban's Church.

PRESENTATIONS1. Mr. W. A. Knight

Mr. Knight was presented with an Eadie print on behalf of City Council. Mayor Poirier thanked Mr. Knight for nineteen years of professional and loyal service to the municipality. Mr. Knight thanked Council for the beautiful gift and indicated that he was leaving with very fond memories of his association with this Council and all the previous Councils and Administrations.

2. Raisin Region Conservation Authority.

Dr. D. F. Conway offered a slide presentation which described the Cooper Marsh Wetlands. He indicated that the Authority is in the process of raising funds to build an educational centre. This building is estimated to cost approximately $250,000 and the fund-raising committee is now in place. To date, the Committee has raised over $75,000 and all contributions are tax-deductible. In conclusion, Dr. Conway indicated that this presentation will be made to every other municipality within the Authority and it is hoped that each municipality will be generous towards this very worthwhile project.

Mayor Poirier thanked Dr. Conway for the excellent presentation and recommended that the Authority submit its request as soon as possible for 1991 budget consideration.

3. Cornwall Lions Club - 50th Anniversary

Mayor Poirier invited Mr. Bill Parisien, President of the Lions Club to come forward and sign the Golden Book to recognize the Lions Club's 50th Anniversary. Mr. Parisien thanked Council for the invitation and invited members of his executive to also sign the Golden Book.
