PRESENTATIONS

1. Cornwall Community Hospital Foundation - Songs from the Heart

Dr. Paul De Young addressed Council this evening in order to speak about the upcoming fundraising event "Songs from the Heart" where Dr. Fraser Rubens and Dr. Marc Ruel, both cardiac surgeons from the Ottawa Heart Institute will be performing along with the local talents of Therese Motard and Angela Rudden. The Concert is to be held on October 29, 2005, at Aultsville Hall at 7:00 p.m. and will be followed by a reception.

2. St. Lawrence River Institute Update

Jeff Ridal, Executive Director, and Bill Knight, President, updated Council this evening on the St. Lawrence River Institute of Environmental Sciences. The River Institute's Vision is to be a leader in environmental research, education and community action on the St. Lawrence River and other large river ecosystems in Canada and the world. The information presented to Council this evening included river science and healthy fish populations, technology development, mosquito monitoring program, Environmental Technician and BSc Nursing Programs with St. Lawrence College, children's education and community and international action.

3. Best Start

Susan Cain, Manager, Social Support Services, introduced Monique Gunn, Best Start Child Care, to Council, who will be outlining the ten-year approach to making sure that all children are ready and eager to achieve success by the time they start Grade 1. Best Start is a major redesign of services in terms of how children and families are supported from birth through to Grade 1. Best Start will help parents help their children be successful in school, will proactively help to prevent children from falling into the high-risk end of the service spectrum and is a smart investment to ensure that future generations of Ontarians are prepared to be part of a highly adaptable and competitive Ontario economy.

Ms. Gunn then indicated that priority focus for the Child Care Component of Best Start is to expand the number of licensed child care spaces, to increase access to fee subsidies and to improve the average base salary for early childhood practitioners. Ms. Gunn spoke about the highlights of the revisions to the guidelines, about the planning requirements and timelines and about the "Schools First" policy.

Unfinished Business Item #1, "Tribute to Huguette Burroughs" was dealt at this time.

ITEMS SEPARATED FOR DISCUSSION

NEW BUSINESS

1. Tax Discount For Seniors

Moved by Councillors Jacques Lemire and Naresh Bhargava

WHEREAS some of our seniors are on a fixed and limited income and experience financial difficulties in meeting their annual tax bills; and

WHEREAS, because of these financial difficulties, some seniors may be forced to sell their homes; and

WHEREAS the City of Cornwall should be helping seniors as much as it possibly can; and

WHEREAS it would be encouraging for some seniors to see a new benefit on their 2006 tax bill.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT that administration prepare a report describing a process that would provide some sort of a tax discount to low income senior homeowners and the impact of such a process on the revenue for the city.

Motion to Withdraw

Moved by Councillors Jacques Lemire and Naresh Bhargava, that having been advised that By-law 058-2003 exists, which is in duplication of the intent of this motion, that this motion be withdrawn.
